Cruisiest spot: Toward back of booth area.

Cruising tips:

Description:

Place is clean and well run by a gay friendly staff. Trouble is not tolerated so riff raff is kept out. As long as you're spending money, the staff minds their own business and lets you attend to your own. Has several buddy booths, which are usually very busy. Staff comes through every once in a while to keep the area very clean and won't hassle you unless you're lurking in the hallways.

Pet Peeves: Every once in a while the gloryholes get covered over, but that doesn't last very long.

Warnings: As with any downtown location, keep your money in your front pocket and ask if the other person is a cop.

Went there about a week ago. Unfortunately I'm not from portland, so can't visit this place 2 often. At around 1-1:30 place was somewhat busy. About 5-8 guys. Turned my buddy window on and saw a 30yo guy with a great cock... Made him moan.. Too bad that they don't have glory holes there. Does anyone know any gloryholes in the area? Thx.

Went here today and I must say there were PLENTY of dudes standing in the booth area just waiting to get a taste (or something). If you are NOT sure what to do, just go into a booth (after selecting your movie from the "wall") and sit with your door slightly closed with just enough for someone outside the booth area to see what you are watching. I guarantee you within 30 seconds, someone will be in there with you! I got a nice blow job today from this rather attractive young dude. Even though I had to wait like 10 mins for him to come in because all these OLDER men kept coming in! If you are only into the young, hot and attractive ones...MAKE EYE CONTACT before going to the booth! I will be there again later on tonight! Damn, that pretty mouth guy gave me one of the best BJ I have ever seen! he was going right along with the movie I was watching! Oh, check out number 35!!!! Make sure you have at least $3 ($1 per 90 seconds to watch). LOCK THE DOOR also so other TROLLS wont try and ome in while your having a good time!
