

Do you believe that pornography is related to rape, sexual degradation, and violence in our culture?

Do you want to do something to reclaim our culture? Come join us at the:

STOP! PORNOGRAPHY TRAINING

Sponsored by the National Feminist
AntiPornography
Movement

When: Friday June 8 through Saturday June 9, 2007

Where: Wheelock College, Boston

What: Training features Gail Dines, Robert Jensen, Rebecca Whisnant and Lierre Keith. Learn how to present our new slide show on pornography. We will give you the experience, knowledge, and confidence to talk publicly about pornography in your community, work, schools and churches. The slideshow is free to all participants.

Friday will include in-depth presentations on topics such as:

- the content and harms of pornography on individuals, relationships and culture,
- the economic and cultural dynamics of the pornography industry, and
- ways of integrating anti-porn education into a range of programs.

Saturday will include training on:

- how to present the slide show,
- including practice on how to respond to questions and challenges,
- a session on self-care for presenters and activists.

Information: feministantipornographymovement@yahoo.com